About Ronald McDonald House Charities® Alberta

With almost 70% of Canadian families living outside of a community with a children's hospital, many will need to travel to access specialized medical treatment. Serving more than 1,100 families with over 21,000 nights of comfort in 2022, the four Ronald McDonald Houses in Alberta provide all the essentials of a home: warm beds, hot showers, laundry facilities, family-friendly kitchens, and playrooms. We also offer Home for Dinner meals, shuttle services, recreation and self-care programming, and more, saving families over six million dollars each year.

The Houses provide more than a place to rest—they're where families can support each other while staying close to the critical care their child needs. Having a Ronald McDonald House close to a hospital in Alberta is an important part of family-centred care, helping alleviate the tremendous emotional, financial, and physical burdens families face when their child is seriously sick or injured.

We cannot provide comfortable, compassionate, and affordable accommodations without fundraising.

Set yourself up for success!

Good plans make successful events. Follow these guidelines to help you get there:

- Set a goal: What would you like to accomplish with your event/initiative? Setting goals is helpful: it gives people something to work toward and get excited about.
- Consider your audience: Who is the audience for this event/initiative? Who would you like to participate in your event? How are you going to get them excited?
- Build your team: Many hands make work light. Collaborate with friends, family, and colleagues. Assign roles and responsibilities. Let them run with it!
- Set a Budget: Think about what you need to make your event/initiative successful. When you keep your costs to a minimum, your fundraising impact is greater.
- Promote your event: To promote your event, use the media that will reach the audience you have identified. Get the word out with social media, emails, flyers, etc.

Double it up!

Why not double your fundraising efforts? Before you start coordinating your event, check to see if your employer has a "matching gift" program. A matching gift is a charitable gift directed to a charity by a matching donor under the condition that the original donor makes the first gift. Many employers sponsor matching gift programs and will match any charitable contributions made by their employees.

Haylen's Ice Cream Stand

Nine-year-old Haylen Astalos from Grande Prairie is an inspiring example of the impact one person can have when they're determined to make a difference for RMHC Alberta.

Since his fifth birthday, Haylen has raised over $30,000 for the Ronald McDonald House in Alberta. He began by donating his birthday money after his mom gave him a choice of charities, and the rest is history! Haylen has raised money for the House by selling ice cream treats at local events and at the bottom of his driveway.

How can you make a difference for RMHC Alberta? We welcome any creative community fundraising ideas you have. Go to rmhcalberta.org/donate/community-fundraising/ to get started.

Meet the Haggas Family

"Meghan has cancer."

Susan Haggas will never forget the moment the doctor said those unthinkable words.

When Susan heard the news, she fell to the floor in shock. It was impossible to imagine her energetic five-year-old daughter—whose world revolved around soccer, ballet, art, and playing with her brother—being sick. Before the Haggas family could even begin processing what a cancer diagnosis meant, they found themselves in an ambulance from Red Deer to Calgary.

At the hospital, the social worker told the Haggas family about the Ronald McDonald House. They felt comfort knowing they could stay close to each other, steps away from the hospital, during such a difficult time.

The Haggas family experienced many moments of normalcy and support during their time at the Calgary Ronald McDonald House. Susan cooked Meghan's favourite food, they connected with families in similar situations, and Meghan played in the craft room with her new friends. For nearly three years, Meghan's family also made special memories at the House birthday parties and holiday events like Christmas and Mother's Day.

Meghan told her mom, "It's like a home away from home. Everything feels so safe."

The Haggas family celebrated a medical milestone in 2022: Christmas without cancer. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said for hundreds of families across the province facing debilitating illness or serious injury.

Your support helps keep more sick children like Meghan close to their families and to the care they need.
